

Sharon Historical Society Board Meeting April 21, 2021

The Board met remotely by Zoom on April 21.

Present: Brad Larson (president), Don Williams (vice president), Elisabeth McGregor (secretary), Carolyn Weeks (treasurer), Doug Southard (archivist), Maria Anderson, Marie Cuneo, Debbie DeBassio, Jimmie Keating, Paul Lauenstein, Jan Parr, Shirley Schofield, Kristin Slater, Meg Winikates

President Brad Larson called the meeting to order at 7:05 PM. It was moved, seconded and voted to move into Executive Session to review concerns raised by a member and a response letter proposed by Brad and Don, and to review policy on Facebook comment access.

Discussion followed.

It was moved, seconded and voted to send the letter pending review by Atty Andy Nebenzahl. It was moved, seconded and voted to halt any blocking of participation on the Society's Facebook page. It was agreed that rules of civility would be posted on the page, and responsibility for maintaining Facebook etiquette was delegated to the Communications Committee.

The meeting was then moved out of Executive Session and the above results reported. It was noted that there had been no recent problems on Facebook.

Discussion followed about various matters, but no further votes were taken. The question of elections management, including whether there could be nominations from the floor, was referred to the Nominating Committee to report back. A question was raised about a date for reopening the museum.

Considerable audio problems made ongoing conversation difficult to hear or record.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:14 PM

Respectfully submitted,
Elisabeth McGregor
Secretary
